

Safeguarding policy statement

The purpose and scope of this policy statement

The purpose of this policy statement is:

- to protect children and young people who receive Mr Coach – Tutoring & Education’s services from harm. This includes the children of adults who use our services.
- to provide staff and volunteers (if applicable), as well as children and young people and their families, with the overarching principles that guide our approach to child protection.

This policy applies to anyone working on behalf of Mr Coach – Professional Services (Tutoring & Education), including (if applicable) managers, paid staff, volunteers, sessional workers, agency staff and students.

Legal framework

This policy has been drawn up on the basis of legislation, policy and guidance that seeks to protect children in England. A summary of the key legislation and guidance is available from nspcc.org.uk/childprotection.

Supporting documents

This policy statement should be read alongside:

1. Our organisational policies and related documents:
 - code of conduct for staff and volunteers
 - behaviour codes for children and young people
 - privacy notice
2. Procedures, guidance and other related documents published on NSPCC or/and Government websites on which we rely in absence of our own separate policy or procedure in a given area (if applicable):
 - role description of the designated safeguarding officer
 - dealing with disclosures and concerns about a child or young person
 - managing allegations against staff and volunteers
 - recording concerns and information sharing
 - child protection records retention and storage
 - photography and sharing images guidance
 - safer recruitment
 - online safety
 - anti-bullying
 - managing complaints
 - whistleblowing
 - health and safety
 - induction, training, supervision and support
 - adult to child supervision ratios.

We believe that:

- children and young people should never experience abuse of any kind
- we have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all children and young people, to keep them safe and to practise in a way that protects them.

We recognise that:

- the welfare of children is paramount in all the work we do and in all the decisions we take
- working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare
- all children, regardless of age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation have an equal right to protection from all types of harm or abuse
- some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issues
- extra safeguards may be needed to keep children who are additionally vulnerable safe from abuse.

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- valuing, listening to and respecting them
- appointing a top senior staff to act as a nominated safeguarding lead for children and young people
- adopting child protection and safeguarding best practice
- adopting effective online safety best practice
- (if applicable) providing effective management for staff and volunteers through supervision, support, training and quality assurance measures so that all staff and volunteers know about and follow our policies, procedures and behaviour codes confidently and competently
- (if applicable) recruiting and selecting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- recording and storing and using information professionally and securely, in line with data protection legislation and guidance
- sharing information about safeguarding and good practice with children and their families via leaflets, posters, group work and one-to-one discussions
- making sure that children, young people and their families know where to go for help if they have a concern
- using our safeguarding and child protection procedures (NSPCC/Government guidance) to share concerns and relevant information with agencies who need to know, and involving children, young people, parents, families and carers appropriately
- using our procedures (NSPCC/Government guidance) to manage any allegations against staff and (if applicable) volunteers appropriately
- creating and maintaining an anti-bullying environment and ensuring that we have a policy and procedure (NSPCC/Government guidance) to help us deal effectively with any bullying that does arise
- ensuring that we have effective complaints measures in place
- ensuring that we provide a safe physical environment for our children, young people, staff and volunteers, by applying health and safety measures

- building a safeguarding culture where staff and volunteers, children, young people and their families, treat each other with respect and are comfortable about sharing concerns.

Contact details

Nominated child protection lead (acting)

Name: MARCIN RADZIUL

Phone: (+44)7503-9999-43; (+44)7858-9597-11

Email: safeguarding@mrcoach.uk; info@mrcoach.uk

NSPCC Helpline

0808 800 5000

We are committed to reviewing our policy and good practice annually.

Signed: Marcin Radziul